

Tune into Live programs without leaving the classroom

ClickView Live connects your students with authors, museums, zoos, and aquariums through interactive experiences - complete with real-time Q&A.

Why ClickView Live

Learn from real experts

Scientists, historians, astronomers, biologists, and authors join your classroom live - enriching your curriculum beyond the textbook.

Skip the budget and logistics

No buses, no permission slips, no travel costs. Students get live Q&A and demonstrations without leaving the room.

Equal access for every student

Every program is recorded with closed captions in multiple languages, so no student misses out.
